

LCSW / LMFT Center for Grief and Healing

EMPLOYMENT STATUS: Part Time, Non Exempt (20 hrs. week)

LOCATION: Hinds Hospice – Fresno, California

POSITION SUMMARY

Under operational and administrative supervision of the Director, Center for Grief & Healing, the bereavement support staff works in the Center for Grief and Healing in providing support to grieving individuals and families.

- Provides bereavement risk assessments and supportive interventions to those experiencing the loss of a loved one.
- Participates in the development of the plan of care based on psychosocial factors and identifies specific problems and interventions.
- Primary duty involves provision of individual and family counseling sessions. Occasional home visits may occur to support bereaved hospice patients and families.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- Master's Degree in Social Work to include counseling.
- Registration with the State of California as an LCSW or LMFT is required.
- Must be able to function autonomously with flexibility and confidence and have the ability to function in an interdisciplinary team setting.
- Must possess good time management skills and demonstrate excellent communication skills and the ability to deal with difficult and complex situations.
- Demonstrated ability to function independently and with minimal supervision.
- Possess excellent communication skills.
- Possess the ability to establish and maintain positive working relationships with both Administrative and clinical staff.
- Recent physical and TB, Tdap, MMR, Varicella, Hep B immunizations
- Demonstrated ability work with health team personnel.
- Ability to learn and assimilate the Sun Coast Computer Program/System.
- Possesses reliable transportation and a valid CA driver's license. Show proof of auto insurance, current auto registration, and possess an acceptable driving record.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS:

- Compensation DOE – Generous Total Compensation Plan
- PTO, 401 (k) and EAP
- Paid Mileage

POSITION CLOSES WHEN FILLED

All interested and qualified individuals are invited to complete an application.

Apply here

